Administrators

As Southeast High's principal, Mr. Fred G. Addis has the responsibility of keeping the school functioning smoothly. It is also his job to enforce the policies of the Wichita Board of Education. Although seemingly always in a hurry, Mr. Addis will take time to be anyone's friend.

Mr. O. J. Budd, vice-principal, is the key figure in the enrollment system at Southeast. Last minute schedule changes, late enrollments, and over-crowded classrooms are only a few of the problems that he deals with during the school year. Mr. Budd makes it a point to get acquainted with every student, thus proving himself to be a very popular vice-principal.

As assistant-principal, Mr. Richard Holstead capably fulfills the duties involved in this office. He attends to student discipline and attendance problems and frequently holds conferences with parents and students to discuss these difficulties. Although a serious administrator, Mr. Holstead is one of the students' favorites.

With a steady hand and a tolerant eye, Mr. Fred G. Addis oversees the workings of the school.

Mr. O. J. Budd and Mr. Richard Holstead fulfill their administrative duties.

Counselors

At some time during the three years spent in high school, almost every student finds himself seated at least once before the desk of his counselor.

Always ready to help the student with a personal or academic problem, the job of a Southeast counselor is a busy one.

A request for a change in schedule, a curiosity about his class standing, or a problem of choosing the right college are just a few of the reasons that students have for visiting a counselor's office.

Looking at student records are Mrs. June Turner and Miss Fanny Thompson.

MR. CORWIN BARE
Head Counselor

MISS FANNY THOMPSON
Junior Counselor

MRS. JUNE TURNER
Sophomore Counselor

A TYPICAL SCENE in the office at the beginning of each semester is a long line of students waiting to see their counselor.

ADA CLIFTON
Attendance Clerk

SUE COIL
Assistant Registrar

RITA REISER
Secretary

Office Personnel

Keeping detailed records on every student, processing absences and tardies, and putting out the daily bulletin are just a few of the many jobs of the office personnel.

Each day many calls come through the maze of switchboard lines requesting a variety of information on present or former students. It is the job of the office personnel to supply this information.

VERA RIDGWAY
Treasurer

BARBARA SWARTSFAGER
PBX Operator

JEAN WAYLAND
Registrar

Librarians

The job of a librarian, behind the scenes, involves more than a student realizes. Many processes are involved before a book, pamphlet, or clipping reaches the students.

Librarians advise students on selection of books, assist in answering reference questions, and help teachers in preparing bibliographies for students.

Keeping track of 7,650 books, 67 subscriptions to current magazines, and a variety of pamphlets makes the librarian's job a busy one.

CARMEN AINSWORTH
Assistant Librarian

EMMA S. SEELY
Head Librarian

LOUISE STEVENS
Clerical Assistant

Nurse

The ability to handle every type of illness is the requirement for the Southeast nurse. Another of the nurse's jobs is to check the students' eyes, teeth, or hearing at some point during their high school career.

JACKIE ROBBINS
Nurse

Custodians

Keeping the school clean and heated as well as undertaking a variety of extra tasks constitutes a part of a custodian's job. Their work does not stop during vacation, but continues at an even more rapid pace.

Cafeteria Women

Serving 1300 students a day is one of the jobs that Mrs. Alta Smith and a staff of 22 ladies, 1 man, and 25 student helpers undertake each school day. It is also their job to serve dinner for Open House in the fall.

"To the true teacher, time's hour-glass should still run gold-dust, "--Jerrold. This is how the students feel about the people to whom they go for guidance and advice--their teachers.

Efforts of the faculty prepare them for college life and the world of business. Students realize that teachers put in many hours working with and for students.

CLASSROOMS

AN EXPERIMENTAL TV class was tried out second semester. All fifth year American history classes met in the cafeteria once a week.

AN ENGLISH CLASS is shown from two different viewpoints--that of the teacher from her podium and that of the students from their desks.

Class Work

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," so the old adage goes, but the reverse can also be true. The majority of a high school student's waking hours is spent in the classroom. Tests, class recitations, and hours of homework constitute a part of classroom work--the most important aspect of school.

Class time is not necessarily without its fun. This is exemplified by the candid photos of the classrooms. Work and play are intermingled to provide a well-rounded education.

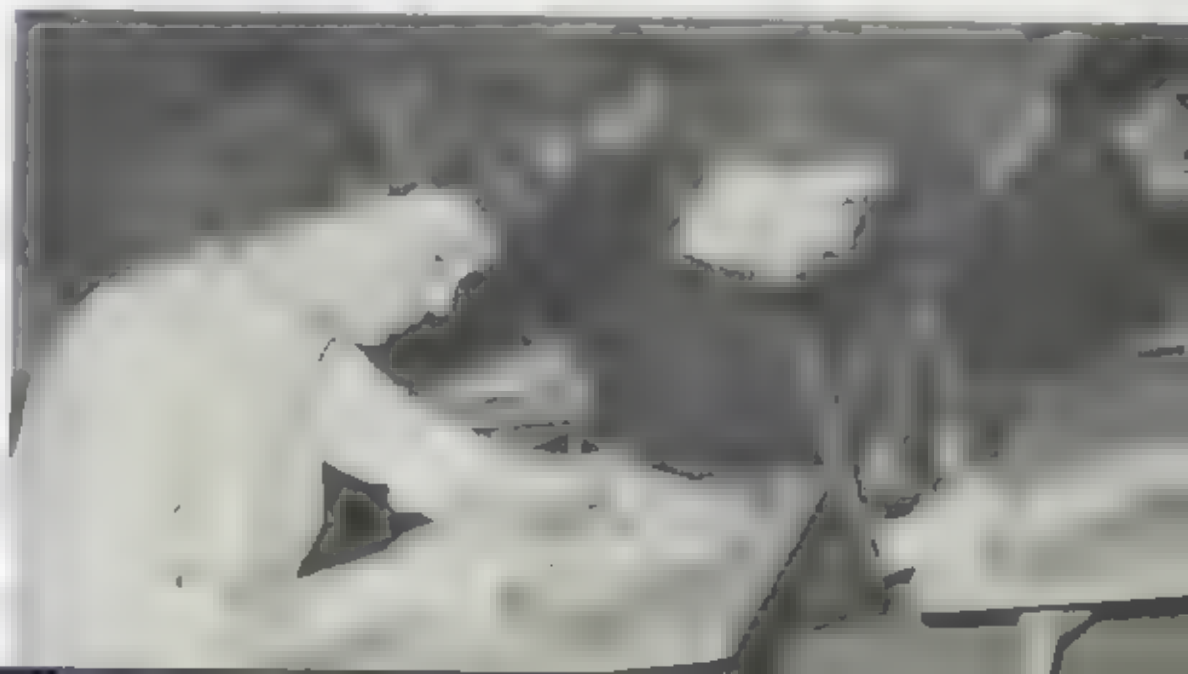

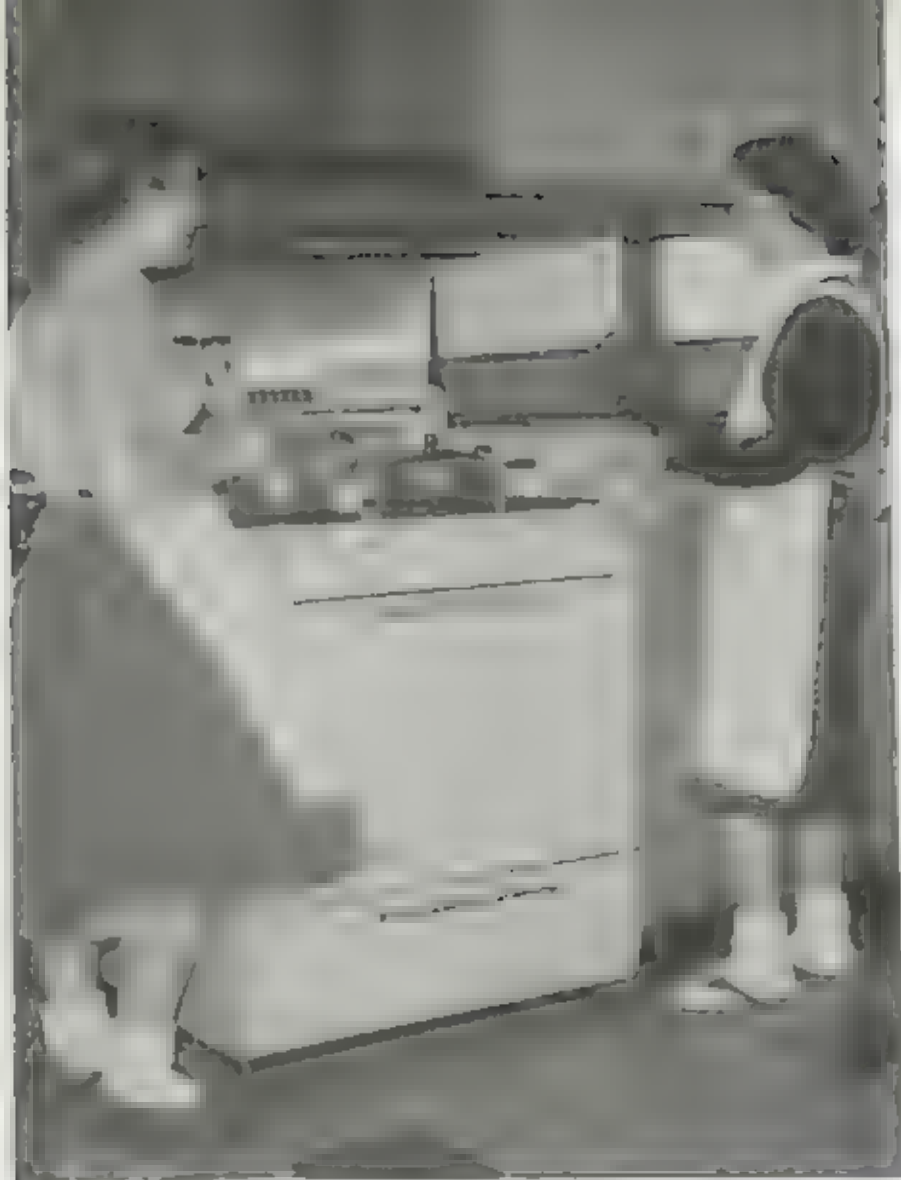

A MIXTURE of chemical fumes produces smoke for seniors Anne Peddie and Roger Mitchell during a chemistry lab period.

WORKING ON a problem in a mechanical drawing class is Mac Gardner, junior.

TAKING SHORTHAND NOTES from dictation are Pam Cope, junior, and Jo Anna Sprague.

LEARNING THE fine points of cooking are Pat Ferguson, junior, and Kay Nelson, sophomore.

POINTING OUT a German village are Mrs. Margit Dinda, Janice Bargdill, junior, and Benny Cluster, junior.

CAROL RICHARDSON, sophomore, and Elizabeth Warren, senior, check over a music score.

SOLVING a geometry theorem are Collins Kilgore, senior, and Stephanie Thompson, sophomore.

Science

JOEL BREWER
President

The programs of this club, including both physical and life sciences, range from field trips, to guest speakers, student demonstrations and films. One of the highlights of the year was the Science Fair in which some of the members participated. The twenty-two members were sponsored jointly by Miss Ruth Mead and Mr. Martin Pankratz. Every Friday after school in room E-2 was the appointed time and place for the meetings.

Safety

JUDY HERRMANN
President

The purpose of this club is just what its name signifies, to promote better safety standards, more conscientious drivers, as well as courteous pedestrians. One of the projects of the club was a contest to see which class would get one hundred percent membership in the club first. The object was to promote an interest in safe driving. The club met, under the direction of Mr. Tom Cagle and Mr. Bill Draut, every Thursday at 8 o'clock.

LARRY NOGGLE
President

Through varied activities, trips to art centers, and creative discussions this club strives to promote an interest in art as fun and a way to enjoy life. Joining in the fun as well as guiding the members is Mr. Lowell Adams, sponsor. The club held its meetings on the first Tuesday of every month during sixth hour.

Drama

A. TRACY BURTON
President

With Miss Ruth McCormick as their sponsor the members of this club strive to promote a better understanding of the various phases of drama. During the year the members presented several one-act plays at evening performances. Meetings were held during sixth hour on the first and third Monday of every month.

Rifle

Good marksmanship and a knowledge of good sportsmanship rules are some of the aims of this club. The members spent many hours together practicing how to become accurate sharpshooters. Mr. James Anders and Mr. Kenneth Coy sponsored and guided the members. Meetings were held every Monday afterschool in room E-2.

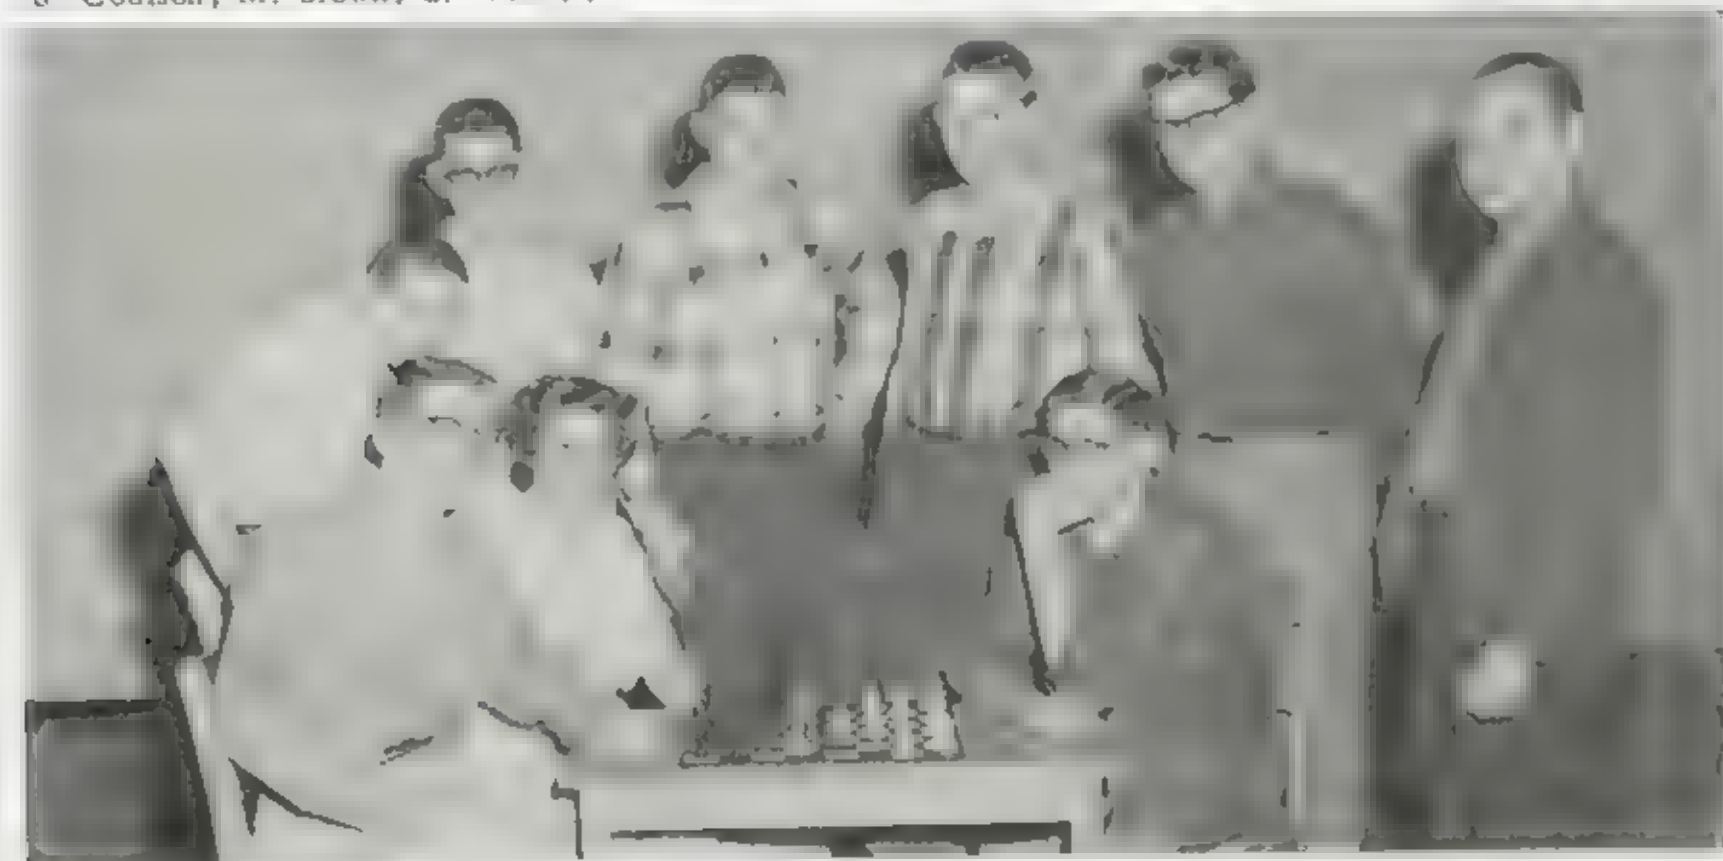

Chess

These members spent many a grueling hour over their chess boards trying to decide which move would be the wisest. The members competed in tournaments city-wide as well as within their own club. Mr. Lee Streiff kept a watchful eye on the members. The club meetings were held every Wednesday after school in room C-10.

Bible

JUDY HOWARD
President

This club strives to build better Christians through fellowship, higher Christian living, and Bible study. This was a new club at Southeast this year, and its members were an enthusiastic group. The members sponsored inspirational and quiet devotional services. The meetings were held at the homes of the members.

Debaters

This was the first year for debate classes at Southeast and the first semester group, while novices at the practice, represented the school well. Two trophies, won at tournaments, were proudly displayed by the debaters in a student assembly where members of the group demonstrated a debate on the question for the year, Resolved: That the U.S. should adopt essential features of the British form of education. The sixteen class members had become a close knit group by the end of the semester.

Nurse's Helpers

These girls were a great help to Miss Jackie Robbins, school nurse, as they were always there to assist in giving aid to the patients. Other jobs they did were to sign in and out the patients and to help keep the records.

Medical Careers

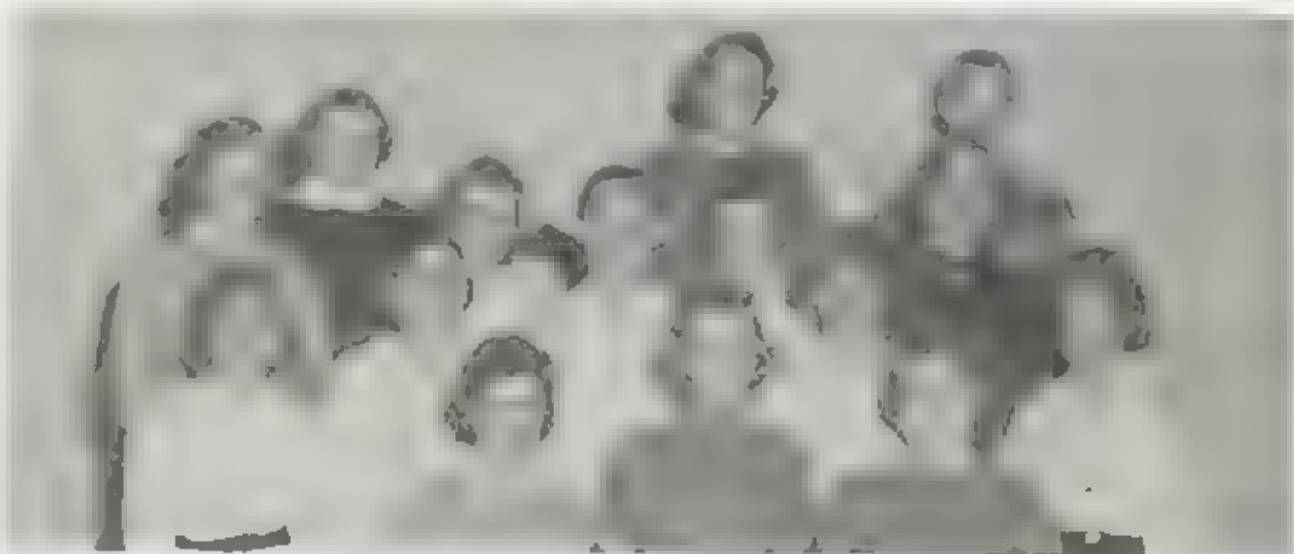

SHARON RUSSELL
President

Members might choose from a number of professions such as nursing, dentistry, and doctoring as their future work. They became acquainted with the numerous medical careers through this club. Their sponsor is Miss Jackie Robbins.

Library Helpers

These girls, under the guidance of the librarians, helped each day with the many tasks that are necessary to keep a library running smoothly. Many types of literature passed through the hands of these library workers. They also carried overdue slips to the students, shelved and checked out books.

Office Helpers

Every day these girls spent their study halls in the office helping Mrs. Ada Clifton, the attendance secretary, and the other office help. Without the aid of these girls the secretaries would be even busier than they are. They collected absence slips, carried messages and call slips, ran errands, and any other necessary tasks.

Orchestra

The orchestra provides students with an opportunity to expand their talents in serious music. A growing group, the orchestra has increased in number from last year.

There is no class meeting for members of orchestra; they must meet on their own time. They usually meet before school twice a week when working on programs. On March 19 the orchestra gave its first public appearance. Previous to this the time had been used for a training session.

Anyone who can play an instrument can join; however, the wind players are selected by Mr. Howard Jacob. Out of the string group of the orchestra has been formed a string quartet.

Band

The Southeast Band, in their white and gold uniforms, could be seen playing at a pep assembly or during the half time of a home game. The band, under the direction of Mr. Howard Jacob, marched in the parade which opened the Wichita Christmas season, Nov. 24, 1958.

On March 19, it gave an evening concert in conjunction with the orchestra and vocal ensembles. Before this, the band presented an assembly for the student body in full uniform.

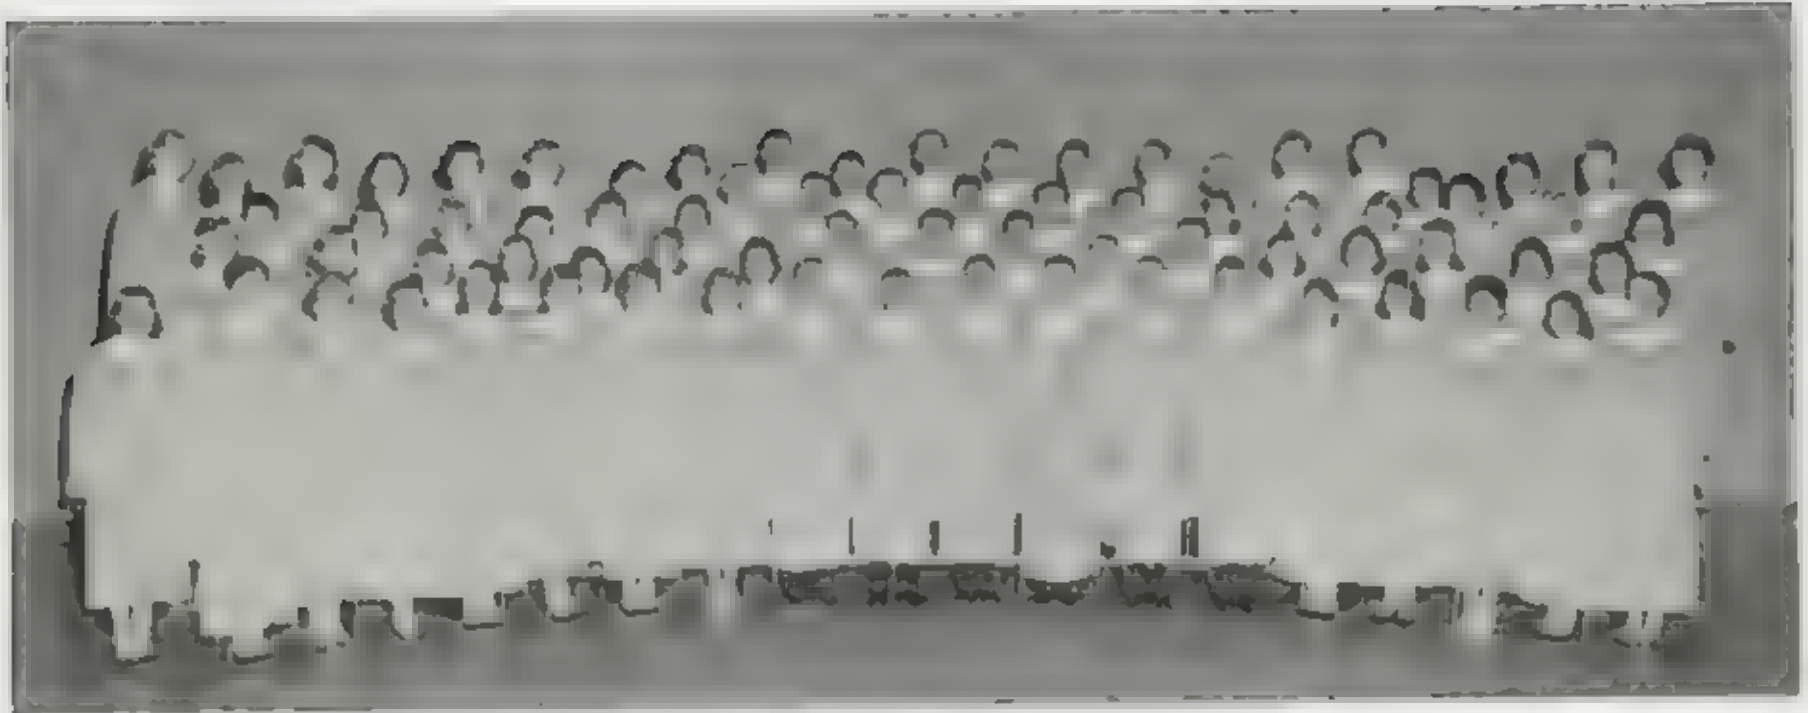

This year the band was made up of 90 members. It met as a class 1st hour and many of the members also went outside of class time to form various ensembles and groups.

Art

The art department helps develop individual creativity. The Little Art Gallery in the foyer of the auditorium and the gallery in the basement serve to display students' art work.

Special arts production class has provided the art work needed for school functions. Students have designed stage sets, invitations, posters, and dance decorations.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COMMISSION OFFICERS ARE, TOP TO BOTTOM: A. Tracy Burton, parliamentarian; Sherry Harrell, vice-mayor; Kit Reed, mayor; and Lynette Hummel, secretary.

Student Government

Southeast's student government is patterned after that of our city—the commission-manager type. The student manager, who is a senior, and the assistant student manager, who is a junior, are elected to head the government and preside over assemblies. In addition, four members from each class are elected to the commission. The class presidents also serve as commissioners.

Golden Buffs Gain First Victory

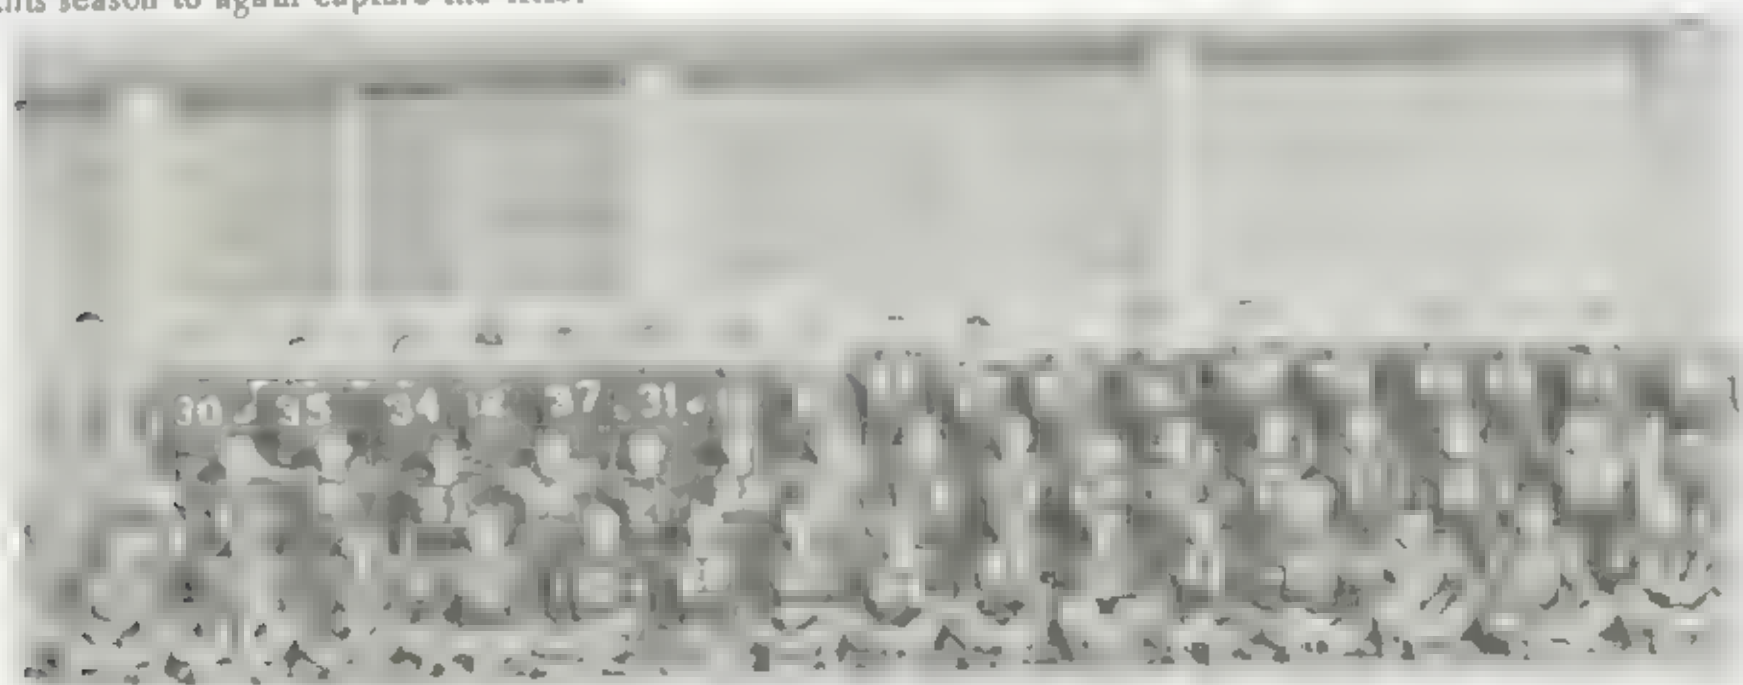

On paper the '58 football season does not appear outstanding, but in many aspects it was a success. The boys put in long hours of practice and were rewarded with Southeast's first football victory.

The first victory was gained over North; the second win was over Derby.

The squad got its first taste of winning and liked it. With several returning lettermen the coaches hope for a big season next year.

SOUTHEAST BASKETBALL SQUAD INCLUDES, LEFT TO RIGHT, FRONT ROW B. Almquist, V. Boll, M. Rathbone, J. Slingsby, L. Snyder, M. Armbrust, C. Edwards, C. Mitchell, J. Bogle BACK ROW Coach Moran, R. Green, Manager, S. Steward, J. Fugitt, D. Addy, C. Hill, R. Reynolds, P. Bishop, G. Munroe, B. Carpenter, M. Gardner, and D. Latinis, Manager.

SHOOTING during an East game is Jerry Slingsby (14) as Pete Bishop (60) and Guy Munroe (24) look on.

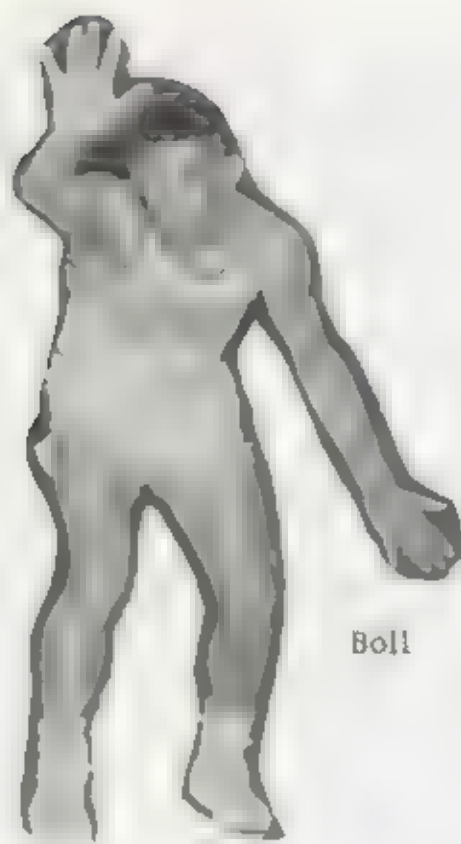

Basketball

Free throws, set-shots, jump-shots, fast breaks, defensive and offensive drills are just part of the action that takes place in the sixth hour basketball practices each day.

Never give up and never slow down is what keeps the squad on its toes in every game and practice. The team's aggressiveness always shows through when the chips are down and the time to move begins.

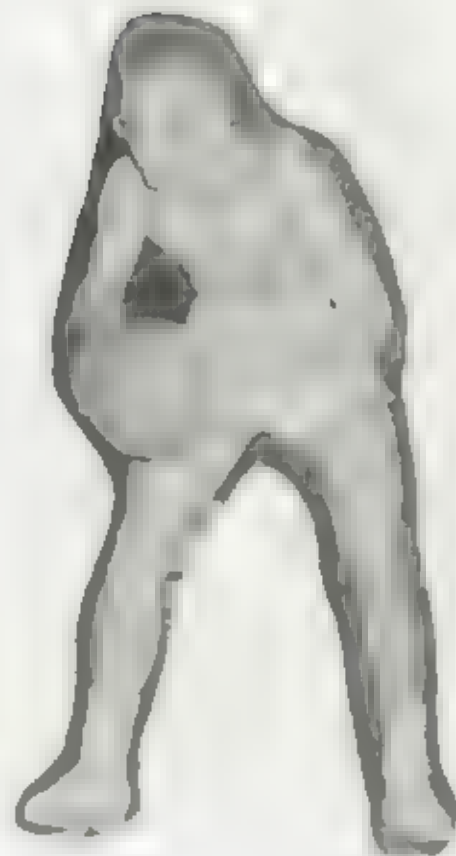

For a relatively short team, its efficient passing and accurate long shots combined with high school spirits always assured Southeast of an exciting game. Several games were decided by only a two or three point margin.

Jones, J. D. Cline, J. Oldham, J. Bogle, L. Howard, T. Pack, D. Hopper, R. Russ, Manager.

Wrestling

Pulled muscles, broken bones, and mat burns are a few of the hazards of Southeast matmen.

Weight lifting, take-downs, and practice matches are on the schedule of each wrestling practice session.

Before school the "bone-benders" go to the gym for a short workout. There they climb ropes and do various other exercises.

DURING A MATCH, Gary Wright gives a word of encouragement to John Thompson

IS HE PINNED?, is the question as a Southeast wrestler gets a man down for the three-count.

Swimming

The swimmers of Southeast start their day bright and early. Then, during sixth hour or after school, they return for more work-out.

The team does not spend all of its time "playing in the water", however. They devote much time to weight training and other exercises.

Gymnastics

This year was the first year that gymnastics was a competitive sport. Southeast participated in three dual meets and one quadrangular meet.

Gymnastics consists of six events: 1. Free exercise, 2. Horizontal bar, 3. Parallel bar, 4. Side horse, 5. Flying rings, and 6. Tumbling.

KIRK ROUSCH seems puzzled as he comes upon Bob Bascom "upside down."

UP AND OVER the side horse goes James Lancaster in good form.

Tennis

Members of the tennis team could always be found during 6th hour and after school developing their speed and skill. On bad days they were forced to work in the gym, but on nice days, they could be seen on the courts. Ability and coordination was a must, for only the top six were chosen to play during the matches.

Golf

Putting around after school and on weekends was our golf team. Even though golf is more of a coordination sport than a physical sport, it is just as hard to letter in because of the keen competition.

GETTING READY to send a flashing fast ball across the plate is pitcher, Dan Morris.

Baseball

Batting and fielding practice took a large part of the baseball team's time. Pitchers were constantly working at their art while the infielders drilled on double plays. The outfielders practiced snagging high floating fly balls, smashing line drives and sizzling grounders.

Skill in each area added up to a crack baseball team when they were put together.

"YOU'RE OUT!", cries Ronnie Cox as he tags Marc Gile at home plate.

WORKING OUT on the track are Tom Mallisee, Jay Dunn, and Richard McNaught.

Track

Constantly driving and giving their utmost is the track squad. Training is the key to the thin-clads' success. With reinforcements from the sophomores, the team made a good showing this year.

"UGH!", says Tim Steele as he puts the shot off into the air.

Girls' Sports

TAKING THEIR place on the basketball court, girls loop one through.

Participation in girls' sports is of two types: that required for graduation, and that which is voluntary, purely for the students' enjoyment. The girls are required to enroll in gym for the first two years at Southeast. During this hour, they have their choice of several different activities, including swimming, modern dance, floor work, field hockey, tennis, baseball, and other seasonal sports. A number of girls also spend many hours after school for their own pleasure.

KICKING HARD in one of the swimming classes are seen several smiling Southeast bathing beauties.

IN MEMORIAM

On Sunday, Oct. 26, 1958, two junior boys from Southeast were injured fatally in an automobile accident. These two, Perry Johns and John Elliott, were remembered on the following day by a message from Mr. Addis and a moment of silence.

The complete school became silent as a token of its reverence to their deaths. On the day of the funeral, the flag was lowered to half mast in their memory. The classmates and fellow students of these boys will long remember them.

THE FLAG was lowered to half mast in the memory of the two Southeast junior boys.

Senior Honors

GAIL EBERHARDT

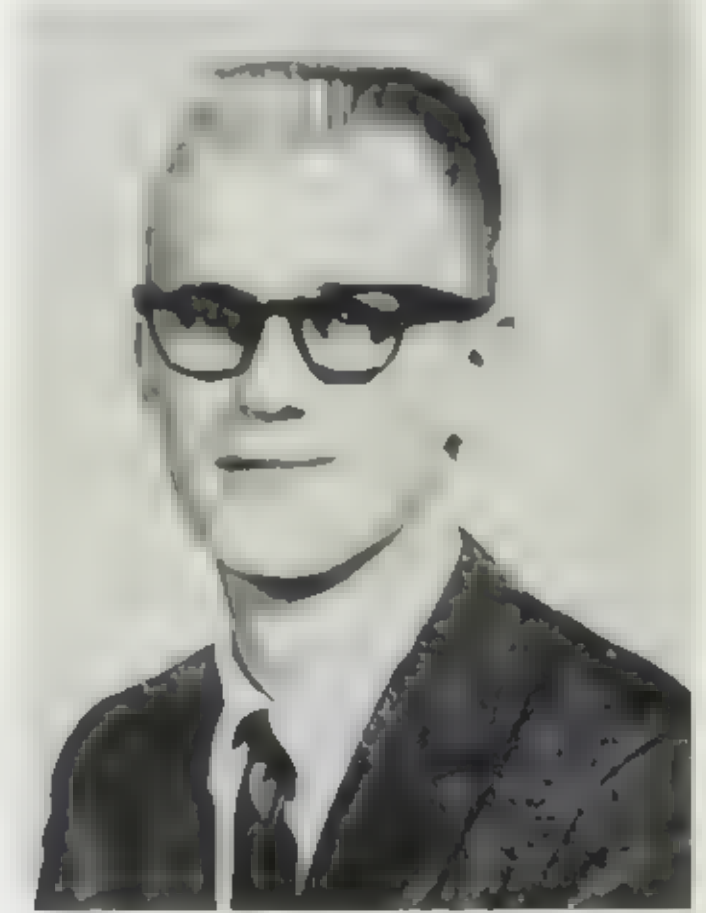

JUDY PLESTED

Four students in this year's graduating class have maintained a 4.0 grade average consistently throughout their entire four years of high school. A 4.0 average represents an "A" -- the highest possible grade.

This high standing is evidence that work above and beyond the daily assignments has been done. These students rightly deserve commendation for their outstanding scholastic achievement.

DALE HOAK

ALAN SHEPOISER

The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. The second part is devoted to a discussion of the experimental results obtained in the study of the structure of the atom. The third part is devoted to a discussion of the theoretical results obtained in the study of the structure of the atom. The fourth part is devoted to a discussion of the experimental results obtained in the study of the structure of the atom. The fifth part is devoted to a discussion of the theoretical results obtained in the study of the structure of the atom.

but we couldn't have survived without you!

Dear Ann -
 You know how I really know you really well until about a month ago. Now I don't know how I ever lived without you. I've never really known how a anybody quite like you. I love a
